

A community service of The Edward R. Murrow College of Communication

Programming provided by Northwest Public Broadcasting for distribution beyond our local viewing area complies with the closed caption quality rules as set out by the Federal Communications Commission. Furthermore, NWPB complies with the best practices inherent within the FCC captioning guidelines. However, Northwest Public Broadcasting programming created for local distribution is exempt under one or more applicable exemptions from Section 79.1 (d) of the Commission's rules:

- Interstitials, promotional announcements and public service announcements. Interstitial material, promotional announcements, and public service announcements that are 10 minutes or less in duration.

- Channels producing revenues of under $3,000,000. No video programming provider shall be required to expend any money to caption any channel of video programming producing annual gross revenues of less than $3,000,000 during the previous calendar year other than the obligation to pass through video programming already captioned when received.
